

Definitions from the Webster's 1806 Dictionary:

Affidavit, a. a declaration or deposition upon oath
Aghast, n. amazed, astonished, frightened
Concatenation, n. an uniting, union, series of links
Creed, n. a form or confession of faith, a belief
Diabolical, a. develish, very wicked
Enjoin, v.t. to prescribe, to command
Fetter, n. a chain for the feet of felons, &c.
Futurity, n. a future state or being, the time to come
Helm, n. the appratus by which a ship is steered, consisting of a rudder, and tiller, and a wheel
Hue, n. a color, die, clamor, great noise, pursuit
Imperative, a. commanding, ordering, bidding
Imposition, n. an injunction, oppression, cheat
Libellous, a. defamatory, abusive, scandalous
Murderous, a. guilty of murder, bloody, cruel
Nefarious, a. abominable, wicked
Palsy, v.t. to destroy the power of action, paralyze
Propriety, n. fitness, justness, exclusive right
Rascality, n. villany, the lowest of the people
Rivet, v.t. to fasten with rivets, clench, secure
Sect, n. a body of men united in certain tenets
Tyranny, n. cruel government, unjust severity, rigor
Yoke, n. a bandage on the neck, chain, bond, bondage, mark of servitude, couple, pair

Definitions from the Webster's 1806 Dictionary:

Affidavit, a. a declaration or deposition upon oath
Aghast, n. amazed, astonished, frightened
Concatenation, n. an uniting, union, series of links
Creed, n. a form or confession of faith, a belief
Diabolical, a. develish, very wicked
Enjoin, v.t. to prescribe, to command
Fetter, n. a chain for the feet of felons, &c.
Futurity, n. a future state or being, the time to come
Helm, n. the appratus by which a ship is steered, consisting of a rudder, and tiller, and a wheel
Hue, n. a color, die, clamor, great noise, pursuit
Imperative, a. commanding, ordering, bidding
Imposition, n. an injunction, oppression, cheat
Libellous, a. defamatory, abusive, scandalous
Murderous, a. guilty of murder, bloody, cruel
Nefarious, a. abominable, wicked
Palsy, v.t. to destroy the power of action, paralyze
Propriety, n. fitness, justness, exclusive right
Rascality, n. villany, the lowest of the people
Rivet, v.t. to fasten with rivets, clench, secure
Sect, n. a body of men united in certain tenets
Tyranny, n. cruel government, unjust severity, rigor
Yoke, n. a bandage on the neck, chain, bond, bondage, mark of servitude, couple, pair

Definitions from the Webster's 1806 Dictionary:

Affidavit, a. a declaration or deposition upon oath
Aghast, n. amazed, astonished, frightened
Concatenation, n. an uniting, union, series of links
Creed, n. a form or confession of faith, a belief
Diabolical, a. develish, very wicked
Enjoin, v.t. to prescribe, to command
Fetter, n. a chain for the feet of felons, &c.
Futurity, n. a future state or being, the time to come
Helm, n. the appratus by which a ship is steered, consisting of a rudder, and tiller, and a wheel
Hue, n. a color, die, clamor, great noise, pursuit
Imperative, a. commanding, ordering, bidding
Imposition, n. an injunction, oppression, cheat
Libellous, a. defamatory, abusive, scandalous
Murderous, a. guilty of murder, bloody, cruel
Nefarious, a. abominable, wicked
Palsy, v.t. to destroy the power of action, paralyze
Propriety, n. fitness, justness, exclusive right
Rascality, n. villany, the lowest of the people
Rivet, v.t. to fasten with rivets, clench, secure
Sect, n. a body of men united in certain tenets
Tyranny, n. cruel government, unjust severity, rigor
Yoke, n. a bandage on the neck, chain, bond, bondage, mark of servitude, couple, pair

This information may be printed or photocopied, cut apart with a paper cutter, and placed as a glue-in with Doctrine & Covenants 123.

Questions about this page? Contact Ken Alford —
 Email: ScriptureMastery@KenAlford.com
 Internet: www.KenAlford.com
 Phone: (845) 446-4927